Indiana Wesleyan, North Greenville win NCCAA tennis banners

CEDARVILLE, Ohio (5-7-2003) - Indiana Wesleyan's women and North Greenville's men claimed the NCCAA tennis championships with a 5-4 victory over North Greenville. The two school's also met in the men's final with NGC defending their championships.

The women's match was the only outcome throughout the tournament in either division where the lower seeded team won. North Greenville was #1. Both squads were 4-0 prior to the match. Both men's teams were also 4-0, but the higher-seeded Cedarville was defeated.

NORTH GREENVILLE WOMEN WIN 2002 NCCAA NATIONAL TENNIS INVITATIONAL WITH 5-2 DECISION OVER GA

BOILING SPRINGS, N.C. ---- North Greenville College's women won two of three doubles matches, and three of four singles bouts to beat Gardner-Webb, 5-2, for the 2002 NCCAA Women's Tennis Invitational crown Wednesday.

The Lady Crusaders, who lost only two matches all season, continued their impressive week on the strength of top-seed Olga Hlushchanka in both singles and doubles play. The Misk, Belarus, native took a 6-1, 6-0 win over Courtney McInnis at No. 1 singles, and teamed with Sandy Steffl for an 8-3 win over McInnis and Lisa Handzus at No. 1 doubles to key North Greenville's team win.

Steffl also picked up a win at No. 2 singles, knocking off GWU freshman Molly Hoeffner, 6-2, 6-3. Maria Macias beat Brandy Borders, 6-3, 6-1 at No. 4 singles for NGC, and Gardner-Webb's Lorielle Ferlita won, 6-0, 6-1 over Melissa Mushinski at No. 6 singles. Ferlita and Hoeffner won, 8-5 at No. 3 doubles for GWU, which finished the 2002 season with a 12-11 dual match record.

Cedarville (Oh.), which will play in the women's NAIA National Tournament later this month, took third place with an impressive, 7-0, sweep of Piedmont (Ga.) Wednesday. The Yellow Jackets' Carrie Hartman took a 6-2, 6-0 win at No. 2 singles and was followed by a 6-0, 6-0 win by Jolene Nourse at No. 4 singles, and a 7-6(2), 6-0 win by Katie Krumeich at No. 5 singles. Jessica Brown took the No. 6 singles match by default, and Cedarville swept through doubles play by losing only one total game.

Emmanuel (Ga.) College took fourth place with a 5-4 win over Greenville (Ill.). The Lady Lions won two doubles matches and posted a split in singles play to take the win. Stacie Beard was the star for Emmanuel, winning over Jonie Dorf, 6-3, 0-6, 6-2 at No. 1 singles, and teaming with Drena Goetz to win, 8-1 over Dorf and Whitney Thomas at No. 1 doubles. Goetz picked up a 6-2, 6-1 win over Thomas at No. 2 singles and Kasey Schluton won, 6-2, 6-3, over Erin Cress at No. 4 singles to seal the victory.

Piedmont (Ga.) finished the event with a 1-4 ledger to take home fifth place, while Greenville went 0-5 to finish sixth in the round-robin tournament.
